Stay here! We're still not done with you!

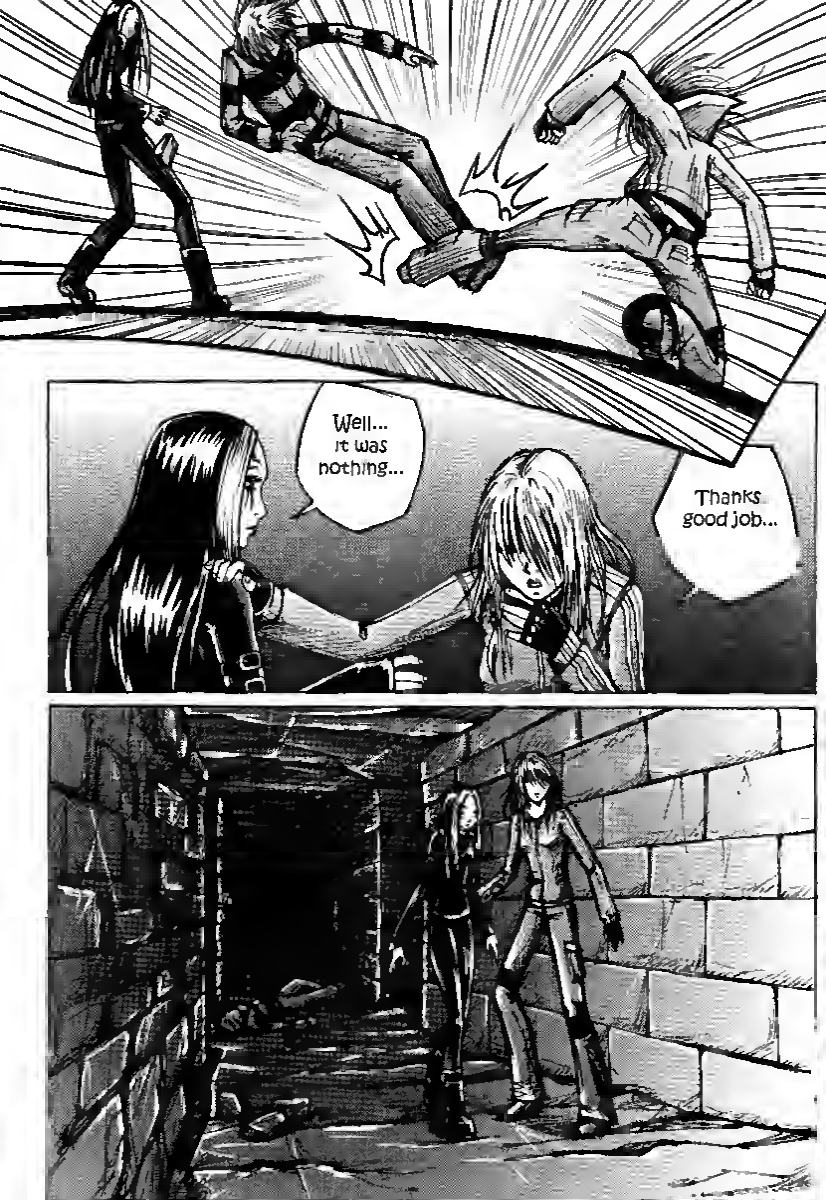
Come on! Get up!

Hold on to me, let's get out of here!
It's not going to be easy...

RRHHHAAAA
Come back here! I'm going to kill both of you!

Wait for me here, I'll be back soon

SQUEEK
YOU!
You're gonna regret intefering in our business!



Well... It was nothing...
Thanks good job...

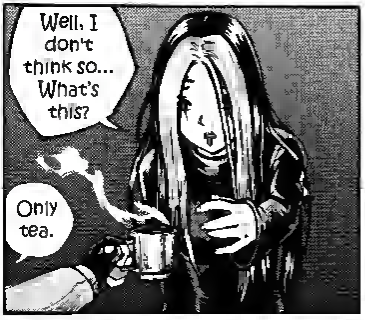
Here, you first...
RRRR
How are you feeling? Did they hurt you too badly?

In a small hideout of mine. Don't worry, we're safe here...
They didn't... I'm fine... But where are we?
ACHU!



Well, I don't think so... What's this?
Only tea.

But haven't we met before...?
I'm Jade.

I don't understand what just happened... all those zombies attacked me at Romero...

What are you talking about? I didn't take anything.
It's not surprising: you were stoned.
I know those goddamn junkie guys... They're very dangerous...
What? But I didn't take any drugs!
That's impossible... Think about it, are you sure they didn't give you anything?
Um... no, nothing... only some water...
Are you serious? Those bastards... It feels like my head is gonna explode!
Look no further, diluating LSD blotters in water is a common and discreet practice. You're not used to it so...

By the way, my name's Anahe.
You... you saved my life... Thanks Jade.
Anahë, huh? You should avoid hanging out with those kinds of people.
Wait... Are you telling me that you were in the galleries without any equipment?! You're completely reckless!
What?
I didn't even know them. I was lost and...
This blade almost cut me... I would like to keep it...
Whatever... I already have everything I need.
What about you? I didn't see you with anyone else...
I know the underground and its dangers perfectly. It doesn't seem to be your case...
This knife... did you get it from that guy earlier?
It was the best choice. didn't want him to use it against me.

I was looking for a friend
What exactly were you doing here ?
Vargher?
Now I remeber... We have met before... in a Katacombes' concert... Listen...
I was actually looking for him too! I'm worried about him. Someone told me what happened... So you were with them that night

Does it hurt? I mean, that mark on your back... I saw it earlier...
I don't even know what it is. I've had it since the accident...
That's strange... I've only seen that kind of mark on Cataphiles.
*Cataphiles: an illegal urban explorer of the Catacombs beneath Paris.
Some Catacombs regular... It might be related to what happened to Vargher.
Well, let's stop talking about this. You're still in shock.
I would like you to tell me exactly what happened. Here's my phone number.
And I've had my adrenaline rush for today. Still, I'd like to see you again.

Come see me once you feel better. For the time being, you must rest.
Not really, but it's okay.
We're gonna return to the surface. It's not that far from here. Can you walk?
Jade, thanks for everything...
I can't leave him behind and I guess it's not what you want to do either.
It's nothing, if you can help me to find Vargher... you'll no longer be in my debt...

"If you've ever seen a man die, don't forget that the same fate awaits you."
